Speaking Testimonials

Jill Felts recently spoke at our conference. This event was a gathering of about 100 entrepreneurs looking to start national or international businesses. Jill spoke in the capacity of a successful entrepreneur, sharing her lessons learned and offering advice and encouragement to the group. Her presentation was well organized and her points were clear and concise and were illustrated with entertaining real-life experiences. Her demeanor as a presenter is warm, engaging, interesting, and inspiring – as well as very believable. She received among the highest reviews from participant evaluations. In addition, she attended the entire event, taking advantage of all opportunities to interact with participants one-on-one to inspire and encourage them. She will make a wonderful addition to any event. She is an example that a person with rock-solid personal values can still be successful in business!

PeopleSourcer had the pleasure of hosting Jill Felts as an inspirational speaker at our 2014 Kick Off meeting in Atlanta, Georgia. Jill's ability to motivate; as well as inspire, is second to none. She has natural motivational ability through personal examples to express the true meaning of success. She gave us the chance to be challenged in our assumptions and see our situation from a very different perspective. Personally and professionally, I believe everyone walked away with a special message. Thank you Jill!
